

Joñah and the Trombone Capital Campaign

Projected need: $7500, from Operations Manager	Running Totals:
Living Costs: $750/month room, $150/month board	Need:
Total need: $18,300
$$7500 + $9000 + $1800 = $18,300$	$18,300
Revenue from lessons: $4800	Revenue:
10 students/week @ $40/hr = $400/week x 52 = $20,800	$20,800
Revenue from Twitch Streaming: $1200	$22,000
$100/month

Jonah will want to pursue grants from BMI, PBR, and potentially the Department of Education or local arts councils in order to pad his living needs. In order to qualify for government grants, Jonah will need to be an established non-profit with 501(c)3 status. My understanding is that Jonah is deeply interested in bringing avant garde music to the realm of children's education. Both Federal and Local governments have initiatives which align with this interest.